FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

U.S.D. "UPDATE" ON ESTATE PLANNING TECHNIQUES

"Estate Planning Techniques: Where it Goes after You Do" will be the topic in the fifth of the University of San Diego's UPDATE breakfast seminars on Friday, October 31, from 7:30 to 9 a.m. at the Executive Hotel in downtown San Diego. The speakers are Dr. E. Elizabeth Arnold, Assistant Professor of Business Law; and Ethel Sykes, Professor of Accounting.

UPDATE is a series of seminars designed for women and men in business and sponsored by USD's School of Business Administration every Friday morning through November 21.

Advance registration is required. Series tickets and group rates are available, and single sessions may be attended at a cost of $15 each.

Friday's speakers will address the California Inheritance Tax System, including the new law exempting surviving spouses from inheritance tax. Discussion will follow using examples of selected methods for avoiding and reducing inheritance taxes.

Dr. Arnold received her BS in Business Administration from UC Berkeley, her MBA from CalState Sacramento, and her J.D. from the University of San Diego. For the past three years, she has been a practicing attorney specializing in taxation, family law, and estate planning.

Professor Sykes, a La Mesa resident, has taught at USD since 1968. She received her B.A. and her M.S. (Accounting) degrees from SDSU. She also serves as Director of Undergraduate Programs at the Business School.

Additional seminars in the UPDATE series are as follows: November 7, Strategies for Managerial Success; November 14, Real Estate Investing for the Overtaxed Professional; and November 21, Profitable Decision Making.

UPDATE is cosponsored by USD's Office of Continuing Education. For registration and information, call 293-4585.
